

~~SECRET CONFIDENTIAL~~

Approved For Release 2004/05/05 : CIA-RDP60-00594A000020029-7

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Chief, Intelligence School

DATE: 29 July 1958

FROM : OTR Orientation and Briefing Officer

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #30
23 July to 29 July 1958NATO BRIEFING

25X1

1. A request was received from ACSI to brief Lt. Colonel James T. McDaniel, USMC, newly appointed Special Assistant for Intelligence to the CINCSOUTH, NATO, in Naples. Colonel McDaniel will be the channel for [redacted] intelligence material directed to Admiral Brown, who has just been named CINCSOUTH. He thus complements the intelligence man on the Combined Allied Forces Staff of CINCSOUTH, to whom [redacted] intelligence material is released.

25X

2. On 23 July Colonel McDaniel was briefed on NSC-IAC-CIA. To make sure he would receive all the intelligence publications he might need, an appointment was then made with [redacted] OCR, to review the whole range of intelligence community reports.

25X

25X

SPECIAL BRIEFING

25X1

On 28 July a Special Briefing on the intelligence community and the mission and functions of CIA was conducted, [redacted] [redacted] for two officials of [redacted] CIA host in attendance was [redacted] The bilingual briefing lasted four hours; rapport was excellent.

25X

25X

25X1

SIS BRIEFING

On 29 July a lecture on "The Intelligence Community and the NSC" was given to some 70 members of the current class at the Strategic Intelligence School. Over half the class, a much higher proportion than usual, was composed of newly designated military and air attachés.

BRIEFING OF NAVAL RESERVISTS

25X1

On 23 July an evening lecture and discussion period on the role of CIA was conducted for some 70 naval reserve ordnance officers. That the Agency is currently under heavy fire was evidenced by the loaded questions, which came thick and fast.

Attachedetc.

Approved For Release 2004/05/05 : CIA-RDP60-00594A000400020029-7

~~SECRET CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~SECRET~~

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #30

CIA INTRODUCTION

On 28 July this program was conducted for 59 persons.

PLANNING OF MID-CAREER BRIEFINGS

25X1

Meetings have been held with [redacted]

[redacted] to discuss possible changes in the programming of the Mid-Career briefings and also to discuss the problem of "need to know" as it applies to the present composition of the students taking the Course. (i.e., somewhat more junior).

25X

[redacted]

25X

~~SECRET~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~